

Agenda: Day 1

Students first: Confidence, satisfaction, and outcomes

Studiosity Symposium 2019, La Trobe City Campus, 25 + 26 July

Day one: Thursday, 25 July 2019

10:00 am	Welcome	Professor Judyth Sachs, Chief Academic Officer, Studiosity
10:05 am	Acknowledgement of Country La Trobe's success developing the student experience	Professor Jessica Vanderlelie, Pro Vice-Chancellor Student Success, La Trobe University
10:45 am	The future of student support	Michael Larsen, CEO, Studiosity
11:00 am	Keynote: The opportunity and waste of human potential: Managing the mental health of tertiary students	Professor Patrick McGorry, The University of Melbourne, Orygen
11:45 am	Observation on national student wellbeing and Symposium Q&A	Professor Judyth Sachs
12:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 pm	Keynote: Feedback and cheating: Rethinking two hard problems that really matter	Associate Professor Phillip Dawson, Associate Director of the Centre for Research in Assessment and Digital Learning, Deakin University
1:45 pm	Helping students avoid plagiarism: Citation Alert	Michael Larsen, CEO & Sherwin Huang, Product Designer, Studiosity
2:15 pm	Online academic support & student retention: Early signs of a positive correlation at CQUniversity CQUniversity has found indications of a positive correlation between Studiosity usage and retention, when compared to retention rates in the general student cohort. This presentation will walk through these findings and offer some useful food for thought.	Chris Veraa, Director, Student Experience, CQUniversity
2:45 pm	Afternoon tea
3:30 pm	Panel: Students first	Uni students Kathryn Champness & Ruchika Bajaj, Studiosity Subject Specialists Helga & Graeme, and Joanne Perry, DVC - Student Success and Governance at CQUniversity
4:15 pm	Academic Writing Evaluation (AWE)	Scott Harrison, Director, Partner Services & Denise Stewart, General Manager Operations, Studiosity
5:00 pm	Observation and Q&A	Professor Judyth Sachs
5:30 pm	Networking refreshments at The George on Collins, 162-168 Collins St (two blocks' walk)

Thanks to Jean Kim, Studiosity user and student at Torrens University, for her featured artwork 'Student life'.

Agenda: Day 2

Day two: Friday, 26 July 2019

9:00 am	Welcome	Professor Judyth Sachs
9:15 am	Online writing feedback: A national study exploring the service and learning experiences of students	Professor Chris Tisdell, Scientia Education Academy Fellow, University of New South Wales
10:00 am	The myth of 21st century skills and the reality of learning In this session, Dr Horvath will dissect 21st century skills (Critical Thinking, Creativity, and Collaboration) and explore why they are so hard - potentially impossible - to teach, and talk about the only truly 'future-proof' skill there is: learning.	Dr Jared Cooney Horvath, Educational Neuroscientist, Melbourne Graduate School of Education, University of Melbourne
10:30 am	Morning tea
11:00 am	Students first? The higher education sector is waking up to the new reality - the experience economy. It's challenging the very foundation on which our venerable institutions exist. The question is whether we are open to, let alone capable of, competing in this new paradigm.	Michael Burgess, Chief Student Experience Officer, Western Sydney University
11:30 am	Language and access: Understanding the language barrier from a Deaf perspective	Dylan Beasley, Project Officer, deafConnectEd
12:00 pm	Digitalising peer-assisted learning	Michael Larsen, CEO, Studiosity
12:20 pm	Preview of new technology developments in 2020	Adam McNeil, Chief Technology Officer, Studiosity
12:40 pm	Symposium outcomes, new targets for student support, and live reading of submitted delegate questions	Professor Judyth Sachs & Jack Goodman, Founder, Studiosity
1:15 pm	Lunch
2:00 pm	Symposium close; safe travels. See you next year, May 28 + 29, Sydney

Thanks to Jean Kim, Studiosity user and student at Torrens University, for her featured artwork 'Student life'.