

Ask for help when you need it.
You've got this!

Check your referencing before you submit - use your Studiosity account for feedback on where you might improve your citations.

Use the library's Studiosity service to improve your research or note-taking skills.

Sign up for an academic skills workshop.

Ask a librarian.

Upload your first draft to Studiosity to get writing feedback and referencing help.

To access resources quickly, sign in on the library website.

Library card? Check.
Visit the library IRL or online.

Stuck after hours?
Use Studiosity to chat live about a study question - maths, science, English, study skills, referencing - from a Subject Specialist.

THIS TERM, REMEMBER TO ASK FOR STUDY HELP.

Find your free Studiosity access on the library website.

You get 24/7 study help for free with your library Member number. In fact, more than 1.6 million students in Australia and around the world have access to Studiosity.

You'll get help not answers, to give you the confidence to keep going on your own.

Choose to get help from a Subject Specialist or even upload a draft for same-day writing feedback.

First, find Studiosity on the library website.

Powered by:

Studiosity
Anytime, anywhere