

I am studying as an online student in Professional writing and a Fine Art major. I am loving the art units and love to paint.

Our lives have been turned upside down since COVID hit but in Canberra we had the bushfires prior to that. This is a picture of me upside down on my chair, which is the effect that 2020 has had on our lives.