

Vanya Ivanova, 1st year Graphic and Digital design student
University of Greenwich

As a student 2020 was everything but normal. I both graduated high school and started university and neither was as I was expecting it to be. I didn't even know if I'll be able to do any of them until the end. I even got to spend my last birthday before moving to England with some of my closest friends.